ABOUT COMPANY

Veryancy International Inc. is a newly established international manpower and recruitment agency committed to connecting foreign employers and global partners with highly skilled, qualified, and dependable Filipino workers. Built on the strong foundation and experience of our local recruitment operations in the Philippines, our company was established with the vision of expanding Filipino talent opportunities across the international market while helping businesses worldwide address their workforce needs through ethical, professional, and efficient recruitment solutions.

Veryancy International Inc. specializes in sourcing, screening, and deploying competent Filipino professionals and workers across a wide range of industries, including construction, hospitality, healthcare, caregiving, engineering, manufacturing, logistics, food service, and general labor. We understand the growing demand for reliable manpower in the global market, and we aim to become a trusted recruitment partner for foreign principals, employers, and international agencies seeking dedicated and hardworking personnel.

Veryancy International Inc. also believes in building long-term partnerships with foreign principals by providing customized recruitment solutions tailored to their manpower requirements. From candidate sourcing and pre-screening to documentation assistance and deployment coordination, our team works closely with employers to deliver efficient and reliable staffing support. Our mission is not only to supply manpower but also to contribute to the success and growth of our partners by providing workers who are known globally for their dedication, adaptability, and strong work values.

VISION STATEMENT

To become a globally trusted and leading international manpower agency recognized for providing highly skilled, reliable, and world-class Filipino professionals and workers, while creating meaningful employment opportunities and building strong partnerships with employers worldwide.

MISSION STATEMENT

Veryancy International Inc. is committed to delivering ethical, efficient, and high-quality recruitment and manpower solutions to foreign principals and employers across various industries. We aim to connect global businesses with competent and hardworking Filipino talent through professional screening, transparent processes, and excellent client service.

Our mission is to:

- Provide qualified and dependable Filipino workers that meet international standards and employer requirements.
- Build long-term partnerships with foreign employers through trust, professionalism, and reliability.
- Uphold ethical recruitment practices and comply with Philippine and international labor regulations.
- Support the career growth and welfare of Filipino workers by opening opportunities for overseas employment.
- Continuously improve our recruitment services through innovation, industry knowledge, and commitment to excellence.
